

Micro Judgement: Gingival floor contact not broken which can lead to the following: decay not accessed matrix band placement compromised and therefore contact and contour of restoration compromised.

Which of the following will be compromised/ made more difficult if the gingival floor of this preparation for a Class II restoration is not corrected? Select one or more correct answers.

- a) Matrix band placement
- b) Proximal contour of restoration
- c) Accessing and removal of caries
- d) Obtaining an acceptable proximal contact on restoration

All answers are correct